Dear Early Years Families,

Before viewing this week's bulletin, we would like to share the following important reminders and updates:

1️⃣ Morning Drop-Off & Building Independence 🌱

As our young learners continue to develop confidence and independence, we kindly remind parents to say their goodbyes at the designated morning drop-off area and encourage their children to walk independently to their classrooms, where their teachers will be ready to welcome them.

This daily routine provides a valuable opportunity for children to strengthen their self-management skills, confidence, and sense of responsibility. Your cooperation in supporting this routine helps children develop greater independence and begin their school day feeling capable and secure.

We also remind families that our first learning session begins promptly at 7:40 AM. We encourage children to arrive by 7:30 AM to ensure a smooth and calm start to their day.

2️⃣ Mark Your Calendar – Three-Way Conferences 🗓️

We are pleased to announce that our upcoming Early Years Three-Way Conferences will take place on Monday, November 16, and Tuesday, November 17, from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM.

These conferences provide a meaningful opportunity for children, parents, and teachers to come together, celebrate learning, reflect on progress, and identify next steps in each child's learning journey.

Kindly mark your calendars! Appointment bookings will open on Monday, November 9. You will receive a separate communication outlining the booking procedures, available appointment slots, and the steps to follow to schedule your conference.

We look forward to welcoming you and celebrating your child's growth and achievements together!

We are now delighted to share the eighth Fall edition of *Stories in the Making, celebrating the meaningful experiences that brought our Early Years community together before fall break and the joyful return to learning afterward.

Wrapped in Stories, Connected Through Learning
